

INTENDED USE

Dividers for cable segregation and separation purposes along the length of the cable run.

Requirements for cable separation must be followed according to branch, national and international standards.

INSTRUCTION FOR USE

Measure the required spacing for the cables and assemble the divide partition using straight lengths.

Cut divider for fittings, as required. Assemble loosely using self locking bolts. Adjust and secure tightly.

User Guide for Bolts:
Recommended Torque